

Mission statement - ABOUT Jacky Puzey Embroidery Ltd

Jacky Puzey Embroidery Ltd works at the forefront of creative digital embroidery. A contemporary embroidery artist, whose work sits at the intersection of design and art.

We consistently push the boundaries of creative digital embroidery to be a company known for our creativity, innovation and craftsmanship.

We design and make statement embroidered artworks, furniture and wallcovering for a global luxury clientele, from boutique hotels to private residences.

We work to bespoke commission with interior designers, fashion designers, artists, architects, film & TV, and private clients and collectors.

The NoMad London - Paravent Screen commissioned with Watts of Westminster

We further value innovation, creativity and craftsmanship, working closely with our clients from concept to final production, to ensure unique and beautiful embroidery for their bespoke commissions.

Our limited edition Koi footstools, seen here on the set of Netflix' series update of Four Weddings and a Funeral 2019

Our work, from drawing and research, to final production, is created in our own studio, using state of the art ZSK embroidery machines. Our network of trusted suppliers, skilled craftspeople based here in the UK, share our mission.

Vision

Jacky's distinctive style drives her creativity, and desire to keep innovating in her work, from new embroidery possibilities to embracing new quality sustainable materials.

Our vision is to continue to develop and innovate in creative digital embroidery

- In artistry and design
- In- house production
- In craftsmanship
- In collaboration
- In bespoke
- In sustainable practices

We want our brand to be synonymous not just with fine artistry but to be seen constantly aware that all our resources used in production will ensure that we work within the ethics and values of our own ethos and company culture